

THE MOST DANGEROUS MURDER TRIAL

FOUNDATIONS OF LITERATURE AND COMPOSITION
MISS DETRICK

Objective: Interpret information from the short story "The Most Dangerous Game" to help prove the innocence or guilt of Sangor Rainsford- on trial for the MURDER of General Zaroff.

Lawyers: You are to come up with a questioning technique to prove Rainsford guilty or innocent (depending on your team).

Witnesses: You must prepare yourselves by making sure you are familiar with how your character might answer any questions.

Questions for the Prosecution (Prove Guilty):

Witness- Sangor Rainsford

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.

Witness- The captives

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.

Witness- Whitney

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.

Other Questions you might ask:

Questions for the Defense (Prove Innocent):

Witness- Sangor Rainsford

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.

Witness- The captives

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.

Witness- Whitney

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.

Other Questions you might ask:

THE VERDICT

As members of the jury, you must write down reasons (as presented by the lawyers) to convict or acquit Sangor Rainsford of General Zaroff's murder. You will be responsible for presenting the final verdict.

Guilty:

Not Guilty:

WE, THE MEMBERS OF MISS DETRICK'S ENGLISH CLASS, FIND SANGOR RAINSFORD (CIRCLE ONE):

GUILTY

NOT GUILTY